

Douglas Melville resigns from SEDI's Board

Toronto, May 18, 2010 - Social and Enterprise Development Innovations (SEDI) today announced that Douglas Melville, Chair of SEDI's Board of Directors, has resigned from the Board. Melville became a SEDI Board member in 1998 and was elected Chair in 2006.

"Doug has been a valuable supporter of our work for many years," said Peter Nares, SEDI Founder and Executive Director. "He has been pivotal in bringing SEDI to new heights and has contributed greatly to our successes in reducing poverty by expanding social and economic opportunities for low-income Canadians. His integrity and deep commitment to SEDI's success will be missed."

Board member Rebecca Finlay has been appointed by SEDI's Board of Directors as the new Chair.

###